Exciting New Opportunity at Evolution

Come and Join the Evolution Retail Team in an exciting new role as
E-Commerce Manager

Later this year we will be launching a brand new e-commerce web site for the first time which requires a capable and organised person to take on the role as e-commerce manager.

If you are interested in working with other Buddhists, are passionate about the online environment and think you have some of the skills to carry out this role then please contact us to get a full copy of the Job Specification, Apply for the Job or to organise an informal chat about the role and working at Windhorse:Evolution.
