Dear Lokamitra,

I heard the sad news of demise of Sangharakshita, the founder of Triratna Buddhist Order/Triratna Bauddha Mahasangh (TBM). Sangharakshita contributed a lot to the revival of Buddhism in India and taking it to the West, particularly UK.

On the behalf of Buddhists in the Telugu-speaking region, I offer my condolences to you and the TBM.

We are looking forward to developing closer ties with the Buddhists from all over the world to revive Buddhism in India and our association with you and TBM is important to realise that dream.

Yours in the Dhamma,

(Mallepalli Laxmalah)
